

Navigating RPI EventHub

Welcome to RPI EventHub! Here, you can look at a few of our most recent posted events, search for events, and navigate to a few of our other pages.

The screenshot displays the RPI EventHub website. At the top left is the RPI EventHub logo. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, About, Events, Create Event, Log In, and Sign Up. The main content area features a green background with the text "All RPI events, in one place." and a search bar with the placeholder text "Search for an event!" and a red "Search" button. Below this is a section titled "About the website" with a description: "A comprehensive platform for RPI students and staff to effortlessly create, advertise, and explore diverse campus events, fostering a vibrant and connected university community." On the right side, there is a carousel of event cards. The top card is for "CASA Night Market - Union: Mcneil Room - 4/22/2024, 8:00:00 PM" and features an illustration of a night market. The bottom card is for "AAPI NIGHT MARKET" on Friday, April 19th / 7pm to 10:30pm at RPI UNION - MCNEIL ROOM, with a description: "Come for a night filled with food and activities with some asian cultural clubs at RPI!". Below the description are logos for various organizations: Panda, ASSE, ASSE, ASSE, KSA, and CIBA RPI. The footer contains the text "@2024 RPI EventHub".

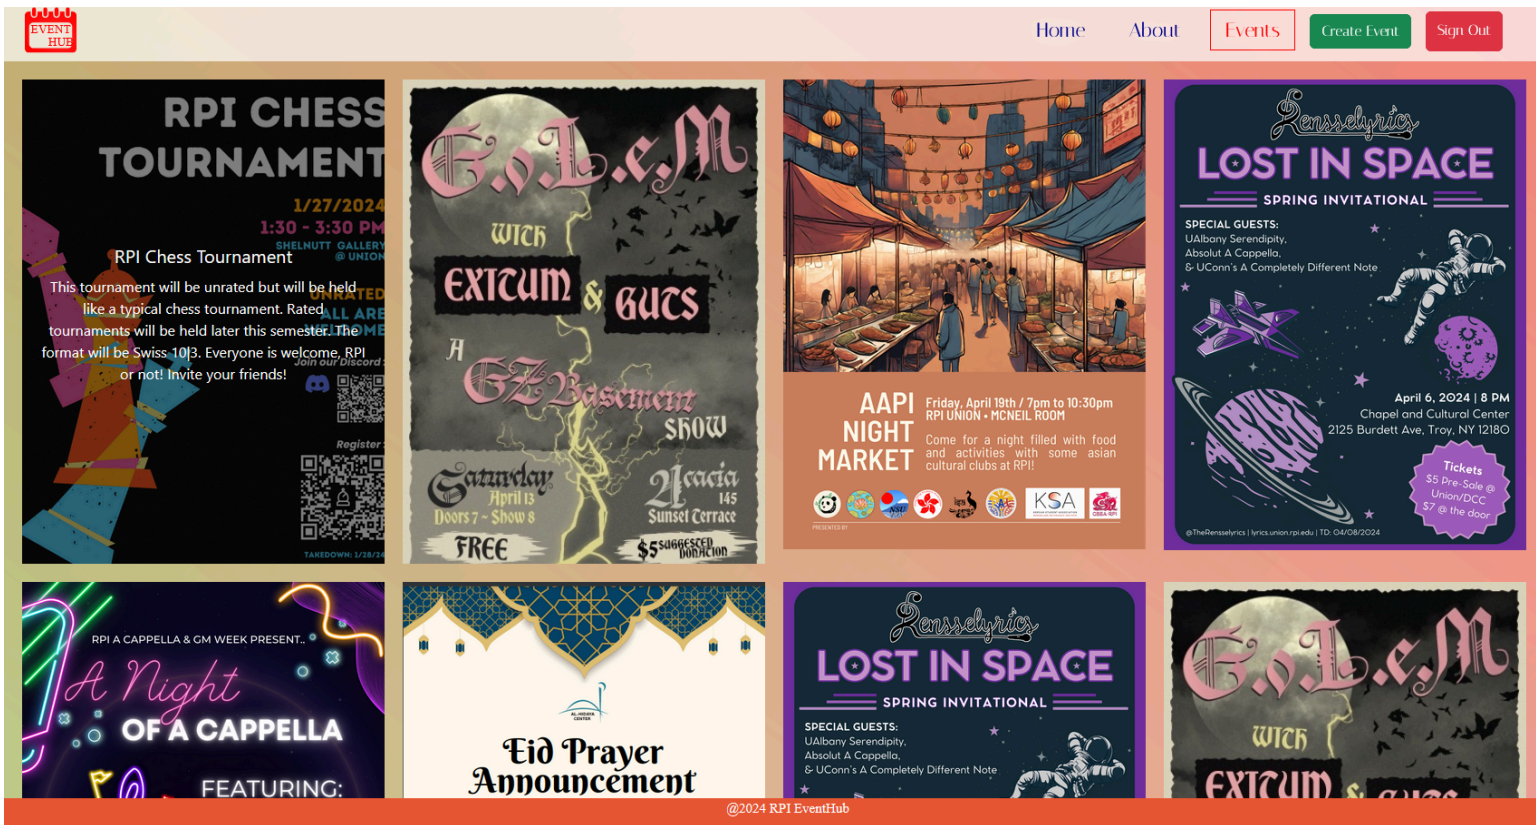

The signup form is where you can register for an account on RPI EventHub. To create an account, you need to provide basic information such as their name, email address, and password. Upon successful signup, you gain access to additional features and functionalities of the website.

The create event form allows you to organize and promote their events on RPI EventHub. Users can input event details such as the event title, date, time, location, description, and any other relevant information. This form streamlines the process of event creation, making it easy for you to share their events with others on the platform.

The screenshot displays the RPI EventHub website interface. On the left, a green banner reads "All RPI events, in one place." Below this is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search for an event!". The main content area features a "Create an Event" modal form with the following fields: Title (with a sub-field "Enter event title"), Description (with a sub-field "Event description"), File (Poster or PDF) with a "Browse..." button and "No file selected." text, Date (with a sub-field "mm / dd / yyyy" and a calendar icon), Location (with a sub-field "Event location"), and Tags (comma separated, with a sub-field "e.g., workshop, seminar"). The form includes "Close" and "Create Event" buttons. In the background, a navigation bar contains "Home", "About", "Events", "Create Event", and "Sign Out" buttons. A featured event poster for "RSFA PRESENTS Show & Tell" is visible, with details: "movie night - union - 4/29/2024 8:00:00 PM", "Feb 27 @ 5PM", and "Mother's in the Union". The footer contains the text "@2024 RPI EventHub".

The all events page displays a comprehensive list of all events hosted on RPI EventHub. Users can browse through the list, filter events based on their preferences, and view detailed information about each event. This page provides a centralized hub for you to discover upcoming events and engage with the community.

The about us page provides insight into the mission, values, and team behind RPI EventHub. Users can learn more about the history of the platform, its goals, and the people driving its development. This page aims to establish transparency and foster trust with you by sharing information about the organization behind the website.
